

CURRICULUM VITA

VICTOR BAILEY CLINE

Birthplace: Seattle, Washington

Marital Status: Married to Lois Lowe Cline, Nine children

Office/residence: 2087 E Millstream Lane, Salt Lake City, UT 84109

Phone: 801 278-6838 Fax 801 278-6838

Educational Background: BA: University of California, Berkeley

Professional Background: Psychotherapist in private practice focusing on marital and family counseling (children and adolescents & parent child interaction) and treatment of sexual addictions; Professor Emeritus, Dept. of Psychology, University of Utah. Thirty years forensic work in area of child custody evaluations, mental competence, etc. Previously: Lecturer, Contra Costa Jr. College. Graduate Research Psychologist, Institute of Personality Assessment & Research, U.C. Berkeley. Research Scientist, George Washington University's Human Resources Research Office. Program Director, Southern Utah Guidance Clinic (Community Mental Health Center). President, Marriage and Family Enrichment (nation wide nonprofit marriage skills educational seminars foundation). Member, Accreditation Teams, Western Association of Schools & Colleges. Field Assessment Officer for Peace Corps. Consultant: U.S. Central Intelligence Agency. Consultant: U.S. Dept. of Justice, Technical Advisory Committee, Thrasher Research Foundation. Member, U.S. Judicial Selection Commission. Chair, Salt Lake Area Youth Protection Committee. Editorial and Research Consultant to National Science Foundation, Journal of Abnormal Psychology, Dorsey Press, National Institutes of Mental Health, Dorsey Press and Canadian Journal of Behavioral Science.

Professional Affiliations: Fellow, American Psychological Association, Sigma Xi, Western Psychological Association, Utah Psychological Association, Phi Beta Kappa., AMCAP.

Research Grants:

Principal Investigator on 10 different research projects sponsored by the U.S. Office of Education, National Science Foundation, National Institute of Mental Health, National Institutes of Health Biomedical Research, Utah Law Research Institute, Office of Naval Research, University of Utah Research Committee, Richardson Merrell, Inc.

These focused on the following areas: Media effects, factors related to a successful marriage, evaluating marriage counseling intervention strategies and marital therapy outcomes, predicting creativity and exceptional performance among pharmaceutical scientists, process and accuracy in interpersonal perception, personality and behavioral correlates of personal values, biophysiological effects on humans of viewing violence in mass media, and personality correlates of resiliency to stress, and predicting competence of legal secretaries.

Publications:

Eighty four publications including books (on parenting, media, and marriage), chapters in books, monographs, and articles in scientific journals as well as popular media, plus reviews of professional books. These focus on media effects (violence and erotica), marital therapy, parenting, child behavior problems, factors associated with accuracy in interpersonal perception, judging others, censorship, creativity in scientists, political extremism, parental attitudes impact on offspring, life history backgrounds of science achievers, and life history correlates of delinquent and psychopathic behavior.