APPENDIX E

PROPOSED STRUCTURE FOR COORDINATION OF FEDERAL OCEAN ACTIVITIES
Shown here are the institutional components that should be established in the Executive Office of the President (EOP) to improve federal leadership and coordination of the nation’s oceans and coasts. This diagram also illustrates the organizational relationship between these new components and certain existing units in the EOP. The National Ocean Council, the President’s Council of Advisors on Ocean Policy, the Committee on Ocean Resource Management and the Committee on Ocean Science, Education, Technology, and Operations are discussed in Chapter 4. The new and existing components located under the Committee on Ocean Science, Education, Technology, and Operations are outlined in Chapter 8 (educational components) and Chapter 25 (research and operational components).
