Gentlemen:

I understand that you are soliciting comments about tax reform. Here are my comments:

- 1) The Internal Revenue Tax is a n unnecessary burden that has been imposed upon the American people by the IRS, without lawful authority granted by Congress. Please demand that the IRS show the actual law that requires an individual to file a tax return.
- 2) The IRS has used unconstitutional tactics of theft and robbery to steal the assets of the American people without a court order. Also, it has used ilegal tactics to imprison honest Americans, in order to create fear in the hearts of other Americans.

Congress has investigated these abuses many times. Demand that these abuses stop. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Paul Ekblad
