To Whom It May Concern:

We're writing in regards to your stated mission to make recommendations to the President regarding tax reform. We'd like for you to know that we are ordinary citizens who believe this is an idea whose time has come. Our current progressive tax code is an arcane relic of a bygone time. Now even the former Soviet Union has a more practical and reasonable tax code than we have.

We are familiar with Representative Linder's and Senator Chambliss' comprehensive bills (HR25 and S25) to cease all income, Social Security, and Medicare taxes, to abolish the IRS, and to establish a national retail sales tax.

We respectfully urge you to consider a recommendation modeled after these two bills.

Sincerely,
