Discussion covered the reform ideas that have been generated during the Commission’s public meetings, with particular emphasis on potential changes in the Postal Rate Commission structure. The principal concern of the association is the subsidy to third class advertising mail by first class mail revenue.