

Statement by Thomas H. Kean, Chair, and Lee H. Hamilton, Vice Chair of the 9-11 Commission

February 4, 2004 — We welcome the Administration's support and commitment to work with Congress to provide an additional two months for the Commission to complete its report.

The additional time will enable the Commission to complete planned interviews and document review, to hold several sets of hearings in Washington and New York, and to complete a strong and credible report.

The Commission plans to release its public, unclassified final report not later than July 26, 2004 and conclude its business by August 25, 2004.
