3                   CHAIRMAN JAMES: To continue our panel on the social 4 impact, we have Mr. Joe Clark. He's the Executive Director of 5 the Illinois Family Institute. I understand Mr. Clark has 6 brought several individuals who will be sharing his time. On 7 behalf of the Commission, we welcome you.

8                   MR. CLARK: Thank you very much.

9                   CHAIRMAN JAMES: I am going to ask that as you go 10 down, you introduce each of your panelists who are here with you, 11 that you would please save time at the end so that we could have 12 Q and A.

13                  MR. CLARK: In fact, I'll ask each member of our 14 panel to introduce themselves with their organizations as we go
15 and limit their remarks to four minutes. Would the timer signal 16 us when each one of us has two minutes left?

17                  We put this panel together hopefully to give members 18 of the Commission and you, Madam Chair, a perspective on the 19 entire midwest region. We have representatives here from not for 20 profit organizations that look out for interests of families in 21 five different states, not only Illinois. We'll begin from my 22 left, we'll go with Michigan and then we'll progress based on 23 experience with the gambling industry. After Michigan we'll talk
24 about Indiana, then Missouri, then Iowa and then last Illinois.
25 So let me ask Mike Harris to begin.
