A National Sales Tax would be the best direction for the Country.
There would be no need for an agency (IRS) to accept the money, check on the returns, work on aggressive follow up and collection and in the end do away with the IRS.

This would mean the end of the IRS - Savings in dollars and stop the IRS position that you owe unless you can prove that you do not (you are guilty until you can prove that you are innocent).
