

PRESIDENT'S COMMISSION ON THE UNITED STATES POSTAL SERVICE

Witness List

Meeting
April 29, 2003

Chicago, Illinois
Hilton Chicago
720 South Michigan Avenue

8:30 am to 2:30 pm

I. The Collective Bargaining Process: The Postal Service's Perspective.

- Anthony J. Vegliante, Vice President for Labor Relations, United States Postal Service
- Robert Dufek, partner, Morgan, Lewis & Bockius, and counsel to the United States Postal Service

II. The Collective Bargaining Process: The Union Perspective.

- John F. Hegarty, National President, National Postal Mail Handlers Union
- William H. Young, National President, National Association of Letter Carriers
- William Burrus, President, American Postal Workers Union
- Gus Baffa, President, National Rural Letter Carriers' Association

III The Collective Bargaining Process: The Experience of the Arbitrators.

- George R. Fleischli
- Professor Stephen B. Goldberg
- John C. Wells

IV. Improving Productivity: Pay for Performance and Workplace Flexibility.

- Wally Olihovik, National President, National Association of Postmasters of the United States

V. Wages and Benefits: A Comparison with the Private Sector.

- Professor Michael Wachter, University of Pennsylvania Law School

VI. Workers' Compensation Claims and the Federal Employees' Compensation Act.

- William Tayman, Manager of Corporate Financial Planning, United States Postal Service